| (e) Larry Donaldson (the Chief Financial Officer of Strategic Metals Ltd.) | - | 625,000 flow-through shares |
| (f) Matthew Turner (a Director of GGL) | - | 100,000 common shares |

Regarding the participation of these related parties in the private placement, GGL relied on the exemption from the formal valuation requirement contained in section 5.5 of Multilateral Instrument 61-101 “Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions”, and on the exemption from the minority shareholder approval requirement contained in section 5.7 of said Multilateral Instrument 61-101.

All of the securities issued pursuant to the Offering are subject to a hold period in Canada until October 1, 2022. The proceeds from the Offering will be used for exploration and development activities on GGL’s Nevada based Gold Point Project as described in its March 15, 2022 news release, exploration work at its 100% owned McConnell Copper-Gold Project in British Columbia as announced on March 17, 2022, and for general working capital purposes.

About GGL Resources Corp.

GGL is a seasoned, Canadian-based junior exploration company, focused on the exploration and advancement of under evaluated mineral assets in politically stable, mining friendly jurisdictions. The Company has optioned and wholly owns claims in the Gold Point district of the prolific Walker Lane Trend, Nevada. The Gold Point claims cover several gold-silver veins, four of which host past producing high-grade mines. The Company also owns the McConnell copper-gold project located 22 kilometers southeast of the Kemess Mine in north-central British Columbia, and promising diamond exploration projects in Nunavut and the Lac de Gras diamond district of the Northwest Territories. Lac de Gras is home to Canada's first two diamond mines, the world class Diavik and Ekati mines discovered in the 1990s. GGL also holds diamond royalties on mineral leases near the Gahcho Kué diamond mine in the Northwest Territories.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD
